You're Invited ...

To Celebrate
Public Works Day

The week of May 17th - May 23rd has been declared as National Public Works week by the American Public Works Association, and Kingsport public work professionals will be on hand to demonstrate the work of those who plan, manage and maintain the City's infrastructure, including water, sewer and transportation networks, at the Fourth Annual Public Works Day event on Thursday, May 21st at the Farmer's Market in downtown Kingsport.

Other Public Works group members also will detail the City's efforts in solid waste collection and disposal, as well as maintenance of public buildings and grounds.

The event will be held from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Farmer's Market, Clinchfield Street, with equipment displays and other information provided at the event displaying equipment as well as several presentations explaining essential daily operations.

Visitors to the event will be treated to free hot dogs, chips, cookies, and drinks which were donated to the City for the event.
